

All I Want

Patricia W. Felker (ASCAP)

"To everything there is a season".....

I look through my window pane
Watching leaves swirl down
Contemplating season's end
What it means for me
Wondering which way life will go...
And where new travels lead
 Is there joy on my horizon?
 Is there peace around the bend?
 Is my destiny unveiled ahead?

Chorus:

ALL I WANT is for your rain
To wash my path clean once again
Quench my thirst with gentle springs
And, ALL I WANT is for your sun
To light my way to your compassion
To bring refreshing times to me

Waking up at early dawn
Waiting for the day
Pouring cups of question marks
Stirring steamy doubts
Does your plan encompass me?
I'm trying to figure out
 Hope my journey takes me places
 That I never dreamed I'd see
 Where Your never-ending love flows free

(Chorus)

You hold the future, each moment of time
I'm asking will you hold mine?
(Chorus)
