

Speak To Me

Patricia W. Felker (ASCAP)

Let me hear Your voice in the quietness
Where the only noise is my restlessness
When I'm all alone
Meet me where You dwell
I need You now
I need You now

Let me hear Your voice over crashing waves
When I have no choice but to hope and pray
In the churning sea
Walk this way to me
I need You here with me now....

Chorus: Speak to me
Penetrate my soul
Calm these waters with a word
Take control
Be the voice to call my name
Through the pouring rain
Speak to me
Speak to me
Speak to me

Let me hear Your voice
Amid life's vain pursuits
Those that steal my joy
Sorry substitutes
Take my clay and stone
Build a home You'll fill
Share ev'ry thought if You will.....
(Chorus)

I listen for Your voice in a baby's sigh
I listen for the sound of heaven's Glory
I listen for Your whisper in a tear-filled eye
Come let me know Your love won't let go
(Chorus)
