

Glimpse Of Glory

Patricia W. Felker

I can hardly describe
My feelings inside
When I first understood your love for me
Through an awesome act of grace
Your life in my place
You have changed my path for all eternity
You have spoken, I have heard
In every precious letter of Your word

I have seen a glimpse of Your glory
I have stored Your treasures deep in my heart
When treading troubled ground
I remember what I've found
You've granted me a glimpse of glory

In the stillness of the dawn
I find myself drawn
To the way You chose me to be Your child
You have bought and set me free
Supplied all my needs
You have held my hand through triumphs and trials
You have given, I've received
Since You touched my heart and I believed

I have seen a glimpse of Your glory
I have stored Your treasures deep in my heart
When treading troubled ground
I remember what I've found
You've granted me a glimpse of glory

Now with eager expectations
As days turn into years
I wait till You appear!

I have seen a glimpse of Your glory
I have stored Your treasures deep in my heart
When treading troubled ground
I remember what I've found
You've granted me a glimpse of glory
