

Heal My Broken Heart

Patricia W. Felker

What could you be thinking, Lord
To allow this tragedy?
You must have some confidence instilled in me
Only you can see what lies
Deep within this wounded mind
An overwhelming pain I look for You to bind

Because You'll heal my broken heart
Calm my spirit, stand my guard
Soothe my troubled fears
Remind me You're here
And heal my broken heart

There are days I make it through
O, but Lord, don't ask me how
If there's a lesson for me to learn, then show me now
I believe no tears that fall
Could be wasted in your plan
But, Lord, I need some help here
Help me understand

In time, You'll heal my broken heart
Calm my spirit, stand my guard
Soothe my troubled fears
Remind me You're here
And heal my broken heart

You know how I'm fighting these feelings inside
My hope isn't dying
It will be revived
It will be revived

Because You'll heal my broken heart
Calm my spirit, stand my guard
Soothe my troubled fears
Remind me You're here
And heal my heart
My broken heart
Yes, You will heal my heart
