

State Of Grace
Patricia W. Felker

Walking in this holy place
I'm walking in a state of pure acceptance
Growing in His mercy, drawing on His strength
The peace of God upon my face
No more wringing of my hands
No more wondering where I stand

I have fin'ly welcomed His grace
I am through with counting mistakes
I have packed my bags and got out of that place
And moved to the State of Grace

It never should have been this hard
It never should have taken years to get here
Wish I could have skipped some ruts along the road
Saved myself some trav'llin' scars
Fought a few less battles on the way
Saved my strength for where I am today

I have fin'ly welcomed His grace
I am through with counting mistakes
I have packed my bags and got out of that place
And moved to the State of Grace

God has rescued me
His mercy set me free!

I have fin'ly welcomed His grace
I am through with counting mistakes
I have packed my bags and got out of that place
And moved to the State of Grace
I've moved to the State.....of Grace
